Jane Court – Psychic Protection - who are travelling with on the psychic highway?

Psychic protection is perceived by some as a vital form of “insurance” when opening-up to the spirit realms. Other’s may see it as unnecessary overkill. What are your thoughts?

We will investigate and debate many aspects of psychic protection including the appropriateness and the where, when, why and how questions that invariably arise whenever this subject is on the agenda. Protection is a topic that would appeal to dowsers, energy workers and therapists alike. Everyone is susceptible at some level to picking up energies and entities whether from clients in our workplace or as we go about our day to day activities.

Avril Holland - Water – are you getting enough?

Water is essential for every cell in the body to work properly, but what exactly does it do?

How much do we need? Where from? How do we know if we are getting enough? Do we need salt too?

An opportunity to discuss what water (and salt) humans need & the consequences that may result of not getting enough, such as headaches, constipation, poor sleep pattern, lethargy, poor concentration ...

Ron Dudley-Smith – The Circle of life - living in harmony with our ancestors

What do we truly know about the secrets and wisdom of our ancestors?

Globally there are many views as to living in the shadows of our forebears. Do we live in harmony? Do we share knowledge? Is there a hierarchy? Where did we come from? What is next?

There are so many questions. I’m sure you have many more!

Ron is an inspirational, intuitive dowser and healer who whilst sharing his thoughts will simultaneously encourage interactive audience participation.
